NEOLD Shogun Retainer Project

From Japan to the World!

Experience everything from culture to the actual buildings again anywhere in the world!

Experiencing Traditional Japanese Culture in Japan is one thing but experiencing it at your doorstep is another. A new style of experience, NEOLD, can also export the very essence of Shogun Culture to any country worldwide.

With our master craftsmen, performers, and partners, it is possible to not only experience NEOLD at our facility in Yoshino but also at any location our clients choose, whether it be their home, company headquarters, or a second villa. We can bring a Noh Theater, a Shogun compound, and even replica castles to a client's desired location. This unique opportunity allows clients to become genuine supporters of Traditional Japanese Culture, which in turn supports the expansion, preservation, and advancement of culture abroad.

Buildings made from traditional Japanese materials, buildings rebuilt from moving them abroad, and completely original designs are all available. A private Noh Theater tucked behind the trees at an expansive mansion, a shogun compound built to the specifications of legendary Shogun Tokugawa Ieyasu, and a tea ceremony room that feels right at home at the most expansive castle can be part of your world at any time.

We can provide retainers that can be called upon to entertain, educate, and enlighten. NEOLD Private House has gathered a selection of masters in their field, in the interest of preserving Traditional Japanese Culture for future generations and spreading awareness of these history-defining fields abroad. These masters are available to become “Goyotashi” of clients from all over the world. The “Goyotashi” masters can travel all over, not just Japan, but the world. With the client’s existing network, together with NEOLD, we can preserve Traditional Japanese Culture not only for this generation but for generations to come.

Physical buildings are not necessary for the “Goyotashi” retainers; they will be available for your service in your existing mansion, villa, corporate retreat, and more. NEOLD’s Traditional Japanese Culture and legendary hospitality can be experienced at your doorstep with just a simple consultation. The retainer system and even just one-off experiences and performances are available.
